"Children are made readers on the laps of their parents." — E. Buchwald

The journey to reading begins long before a child enters Kindergarten. Reading to your child is the best way to help them be ready for school.

Any child from birth to entering Kindergarten can participate in this simple early literacy program at the Mountainside Public Library. The goal is to read 1,000 books together during these formative years.

Sharing books can include joining our library's story times, reading a book from cover to cover once or many, many times and any other way that brings you and your child together with words.

Here's how to get started

Register by emailing Elizabeth Perrin at eperrin@mountainsidelibrary.org

Receive a purple folder with your first log and more details about the program to pick up curbside or you can use the 1,000 Books App for your phone to record your reading.

Make sure you have a current library card. Information is on our home page www.mountainsidelibrary.org. or call for help 908-233-0115

Check out a few books you think your child will enjoy. Reserve hard cover books on our website for curbside pickup or read ebooks from Libby or Hoopla or Tumblebooks. Remember audiobooks count too!

Let Elizabeth when you finish your first 100 books. I will have a special book just for you. Then you will be on your way to 200 and another book for your home library.
